EXHIBITION DEDICATED TO SUPPORTING YOUNG ARTISTS

60 Artists Selected By Jeune Création To Show Works At The Large-Scale Pantin Gallery Space In September 2020

All Sales Proceeds To Go Directly To The Artists And Their Galleries

Galerie Thaddaeus Ropac is delighted to announce that it will dedicate its 2,000m² exhibition space at the Paris Pantin gallery to an exhibition that will support young and emerging artists and galleries. The Ropac gallery's infrastructure will promote the exhibition of 60 international artists selected to participate by the Jeune Création committee, to foster much-needed sales of their work at a critical time. The show will be on view from 12-26 September 2020 with all sales proceeds going directly to the artists and their galleries.

Thaddaeus Ropac comments, 'This is an unprecedented time for so many, but within our art world community it is particularly challenging for the next generation of artists and young galleries. By offering our largest gallery space and our full infrastructure to present work by 60 young artists we can support those in our community who are most in need.'

Jérémy Chabaud, director of Jeune Création, states, 'In this troubled period of health crisis, Galerie Thaddaeus Ropac and Jeune Création unite with vigour and reinforced solidarity to celebrate the 70th edition of Jeune Création and affirm their support to artists. Everyone will be invited to create, reflect and act together in favour of creative freedom.'

About Jeune Création

Founded in 1949, Jeune Création has been supporting young emerging artists for over 70 years. Their exhibition presents the works of around 60 artists, in addition to a varied program of performance, photography and video, reflecting the diversity of current practices and bringing the total of participating artists to about a hundred. The selection committee comprises artists from previous editions and specially appointed guest panellists, and independent prizes are awarded. This is the third occasion that Galerie Thaddaeus Ropac has collaborated with Jeune Création.
